

Austermere Estate 1904 - Original Listing Evidence

The original 1904 Austermere Estate sale listing is important because it describes the broader Moss Vale/Bong Bong locality as land being actively marketed for rural and agricultural use. The listing states that the estate included a “large area cleared & ready for plough” and refers to “Orchard Blocks, Dairy & Agricultural Farms”. This supports the conclusion that, by 1904, land in this historical locality had already been cleared or prepared for farming-style use, and was being promoted for agriculture, dairying, orcharding and related rural occupation rather than as untouched native land.
